My family and I have recently moved from Kuala Lumpur to Georgetown, Penang because my father got relocated here. I had never been to this city before so I was quite nervous to start my life here.

Georgetown is the capital city of Penang. The city is known for its colonial buildings, religious places such as temples and mosques, and the myriad of food. I love Georgetown for its food, namely nasi kandar, rojak, pasembur and laksa. The city is rich in history and cultural heritage, with places like the Peranakan Mansion and Clan Jetties.

My favourite place in Georgetown is Penang Street Art. It is filled with hand-painted murals. The "Brother and Sister on A Swing" is my favourite. The city is best explored on foot as the places are located quite near to one another. In addition, buses are affordable too. In sum, I love Georgetown, and I can't wait to explore more.

Dear Danial,

Hope you are in the pink of health. After putting much thought into which music class I should take during the upcoming school holiday, I have finally made a decision—I am going for the tuba class! The music class costs RM60 per hour, which is affordable for me, and it will be held every Friday. I am looking forward to learning basic music theory and how to read music. Moreover, I can attend concerts and orchestras and see how the tuba players play. Isn't that exciting? And who knows, maybe I will even get a chance to participate in music events. Wish me luck!

Sincerely,
Omar

Last Wednesday, Mohan had a terrible and unfortunate day at school. He woke up late to school because he spent the night playing video games until 3 a.m. His mother scolded him and his bus left him. Mohan had to walk to school. He arrived at 8 in the morning and the discipline teacher, Mr Tee, reprimanded him for being late and was given detention. To top it off, he forgot to do his science homework. Mohan deeply regretted his actions and promised to make a change.

Dear Mum and Dad,

I hope you are in the pink. You don't have to worry about me at the camping site. I am very happy here. Guess what? I have made tons of new friends here. You know, I am eating well too. We have five meals here.

For breakfast, we eat bread with strawberry jam and butter, roti canai and a glass of orange juice after the morning exercise. At noon, we have porridge and rice, fish curry and mixed vegetables. For teatime, we have biscuits and tea. After jungle trekking, we eat rice, beef curry and fried cabbages. Lastly, we eat sandwich and drink a cup of hot chocolate for supper.

That's all for now. I miss both of you very much. See you in a week's time!

Love,
Farid

Last week, my school held its Annual Sports Day at the school's field. The day before the event, pupils and teachers worked together to prepare the canopy tents and decorate the field with colourful balloons and garlands.

On the event day, the Sports Day began with a spirited procession performed by all pupils from Year 4 until 6, representing our sports houses. I was in the blue house. Teachers and parents cheered for us from the bleachers. The event was commenced by the headmaster after the singing of the national anthem.

The first sports event was the high jump, followed by a 100-meter sprint race, shot put and other track events. I took part in the sprint race and won first place. My friend, Rajiv, won second place in the high jump event. Our parents were proud of our accomplishments.

During the prize-giving ceremony, the winners were awarded medals and trophies given away by the headmaster. It was the best day ever.
