Adverbs of Frequency

- Adverbs of frequency tell us how often an action takes place.

- He always gets up at 6.00 a.m. every day.
- She usually goes to school by bus.
- He has never been late for school.
- They sometimes go to school by bicycle.
- I often spend my free time watching the television.

Adverbs of frequency come:

1 after the verb be.

E.g.: He is always late.

2 before the other verbs.

E.g.: I often watch the television.
