My father bought speedboat tickets for our family. The boat took us island hopping, snorkelling and diving in the deep sea. The islands were stunning, with clean white sands and blue waters. Although we were exhausted from doing the activities, we enjoyed ourselves very much.

We set out on a boat early the next morning to catch sunrise. The scenery was incredible and I couldn't stop staring at the sun. Later in the evening, we went swimming and kayaking.

On our final day, we woke up a little late and had a wholesome breakfast at the hotel. We did some shopping and bought souvenirs for friends and relatives. We took a midnight flight back to Kuala Lumpur, bringing unforgettable memories from Krabi.

Last Friday, Anna's parents had to work late, leaving her home alone. She jumped up and down her bed all evening happily. While Anna was playing, she heard the doorbell and saw a man dressed in all black peering through the windows. He was carrying a bag.

She opened the door to identify the man. He told her he was a pizza delivery person sent by her parents. Anna stepped outside to collect the pizza. All of a sudden, the man pushed Anna back into the house. She screamed for help.

Thankfully, her neighbour, Mr Liew, heard her cries and called the police immediately. A few minutes later, the police arrived and apprehended the man. Anna's parents returned and regretted leaving her alone. They thanked Mr Liew for his concern.

Hi Suzie,

I hope you are doing well! During the school holidays, I helped my mom sweep the floor, wash the dishes and water the plants. It kept me busy, but I enjoyed it. Doing chores has taught me to be organised and neat. What about you? What household chores did you do during the school holidays? I'd love to know!

Take care,

Hi Aida,

The Egypt Exhibition will be held at the National Museum from the 21st to the 31st of December, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. It showcases mummies from Egypt, a video on the mummification process and a DIY mummy activity using clay! There will also be a poster drawing competition. Best of all, admission is free! I think it will be both fun and educational. Let's go together and explore the fascinating world of ancient Egypt! Please let me know when you are available so we can plan our visit.

Love,
Riana
