Dear Chong,

My school is organising a celebration for Independence Day on the 2nd of September at our school hall. I will attend the event because of the many competitions. For example, there are colouring, drawing, national songs, traditional dance and traditional food cooking competitions. I heard there will be attractive prizes to be won. I think I will participate in the drawing competition. Would you like to join me?

Hi Dad,

I recently saw an advertisement about a Star Cruise Travel. The trip costs RM50 for each person. They will take us from Penang to Langkawi by a cruise ship. The promotion period is from the 1st until the 15th of August. I can't wait to travel on a cruise ship. My friend said it is fun and exciting. Will you consider it, Dad? I am sure Mum and Anita will be thrilled.

Sincerely,
Adam

I am honoured that you want to know about my success in tennis. I chose to play tennis because I enjoy the excitement and the game. I train every day. I like to learn new things about tennis, so I will look up information on the Internet to enhance my skills. My parents also show their support for me. I guess these are what motivated me to win the tournament. Bye!

| Hi Arul, | |
| How are you? I saw a poster for an English Class. I am thinking of joining the class to improve my speaking skill. The fees are affordable, and there will be a free demo class too. The poster also mentioned that the teaching method will be fun, easy and enjoyable. In addition, we will be taught by experienced teachers. What do you think? Are you interested too? Kindly let me know. | |

Hi Adam,

How are you? Our school is organising a drama competition on the 22nd of May at our school hall. Every group must contain three to five members. The story must have a moral value and be presented within five to ten minutes. Also, we need to wear our own costumes. The winning team will win bikes and cash prize. Since we are part of the drama club, maybe we should join the competition. What do you say?
